

BookSmiles

For the month of March, Holland Township School will be running a Book Drive to support BookSmiles, a non-profit organization that to date has distributed over a million books to children who live in "book deserts" where access to reading materials is limited. Your donations will help build school and classroom libraries, as well as personal collections. Collection boxes will be located outside the middle school library, in the hallway by the nurses office, and in the 4th/5th wing.

We will accept:

- New and gently used children's books for ages infant through high school
- Fiction and Nonfiction (no encyclopedias, reference books or religiously themed books)
- Please no old, musty smelling, torn or written in books
- Items you'd be proud to give to a child

Thank you so much in advance for your support. If you have questions, please contact Mrs. Detrick at cdetr@hollandschool.org or visit the BookSmiles website.

Monetary donations can be made online or by check made out to and sent to:

We provide students and younger siblings with high-quality new or gently used books, laying the groundwork for academic success. We “irrigate book deserts”!
