Dear Parents and Guardians:

As you may be aware, my position here at Holland is multi-faceted. This week I write to you as the Supervisor of Special Services to encourage you to help us recognize Autism Acceptance as we enter into the final week of Autism Awareness Month.

Holland Township School celebrates diversity and inclusion in education each day, we have a beautifully diverse student body in their abilities, gifts and talents. Each day brings new joys and understandings. Each day brings opportunities to learn.

Next week we will celebrate Autism Acceptance through a building wide celebration. Please join us each day in our spirit activities to bring students together to celebrate our differences, strengths and how we all fit into the puzzle. Celebrations will take place PreK- 8th grade with opportunities for grade levels to come together and share experiences. Students will decorate together, come together over stories and experiences of individuals with Autism and color themselves into our own Autistic puzzle.

- Monday 4/24- "Team Up 4 Autism" wear your favorite TEAM jersey
- Tuesday 4/25- "Be an Individual" CRAZY SOCK day
- Wednesday 4/26- "Put a Bully to Bed" PJ day
- Thursday 4/27- "Blend Together" Tie dye day
- Friday 4/28- "Go BLUE" wear blue to show your support

As always, thank you for your ongoing understanding and support of our efforts.

Enjoy your weekend.

Sincerely,
