

The image features a warm, autumn-themed background. At the top and bottom, there are clusters of stylized leaves in shades of red, orange, and yellow, some with bright starburst effects. The central area is filled with horizontal, wavy bands of varying shades of orange and yellow, creating a textured, layered effect.

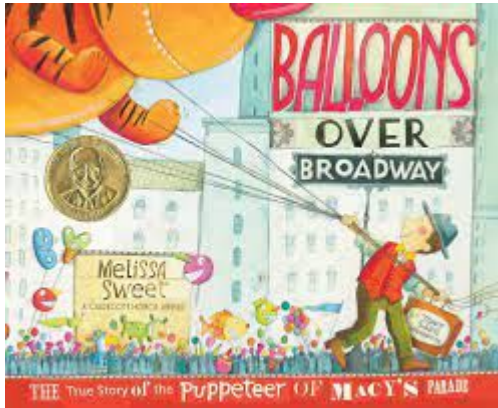

From our “little family” of 512 students to yours, a very Happy Thanksgiving!

*~Please enjoy our slideshow of Holland
School celebrating and giving thanks~*

Balloons Over Broadway....

...Holland style! Inspired by Melissa Sweet's book.

The Macy's Thanksgiving Day
Parade has nothing over ours!

NORWESCAP Food Drive

Thank you to all who donated food for local food pantries.

Thank you to our parent
volunteers who helped pack up the food for distribution.

Feliz Dia de Accion de Gracias!

Middle School Gratitude Wall

My Turkey is Disguised As.....

Students in 2nd Grade wrote about their “turkey” in disguise.

We have some talented, future writers in our school!

Kindergarten Turkey Maze

Students in Kindergarten made their own turkey mazes.

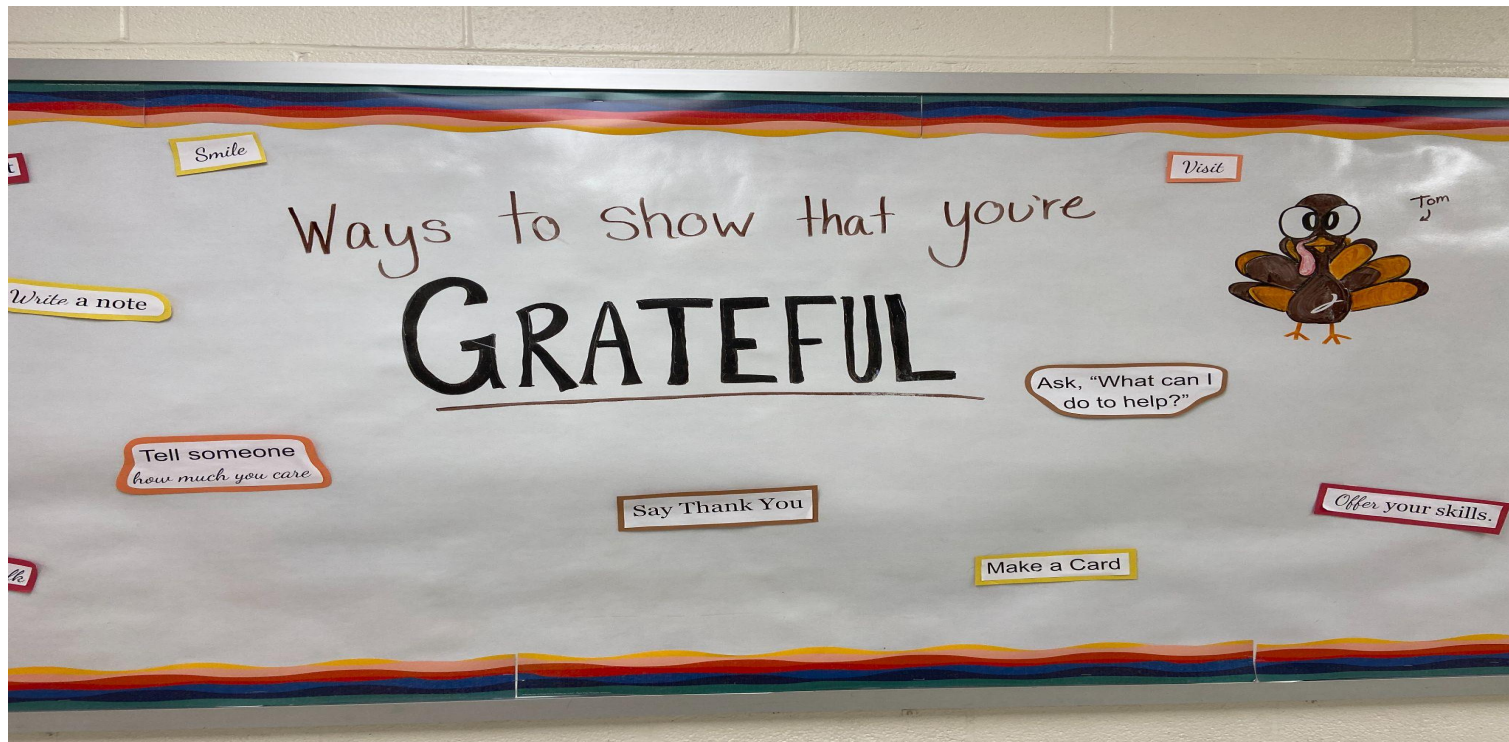

Celebrating our Veterans

Students in Mrs. Sloyer's class wrote letters of thanks to our Veterans.

5th Grade Has it Figured Out....

First Grade Has it All Figured Out.....

The background features a central area with horizontal, wavy bands in shades of orange, yellow, and brown. This central area is framed by decorative borders at the top and bottom. The borders consist of various autumn leaves in shades of red, orange, and green, some with bright yellow starburst highlights. The overall theme is warm and seasonal.

We hope you enjoyed getting a glimpse into our wonderful school environment!